Accreditation: The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) to award baccalaureate, masters, educational specialist, and doctorate degrees. Degree-granting institutions also may offer credentials such as certificates and diplomas at approved degree levels.

Calendar: The University of Tennessee, Knoxville, operates on a semester calendar. Coursework completed before Fall 1988 was under the quarter system. The College of Law transitioned to the semester system after Spring Quarter 1981.

Credit Hour: One credit hour represents approximately 35 hours of student engagement per semester, including instruction and independent work. This standard applies across all instructional formats—traditional, online, hybrid, lab, and experiential. Credit hours and learning outcomes are defined by faculty and approved through University governance. Refer to the University Catalog for full policy details.

Credit Level and Numbering System
U - Undergraduate level courses numbered 100(0) - 400(0)
G - Graduate level courses numbered 500(0) and 600(0)
L - Law level courses numbered 800(0) and 900(0)
V - Veterinary Medicine level courses numbered 800(0)
*N, S, or R in the course number signifies an internship, service or research course

Grade Point Average: GPA is calculated by dividing the sum of quality points earned by the sum of attempted hours for all courses receiving a grade used in calculating the GPA.

Transfer Policy: (Effective fall quarter 1985) Transfer hours are counted for degree programs but are not computed in the UT grade point average for courses transferred after summer quarter 1985.

Academic Standing: Unless otherwise noted by 'Academic Dismissal' a student is in good standing and eligible to enroll.
